

A&WMA Doctoral Dissertation Award 2024

Established by resolution of the Education Council on August 28, 2008, the A&WMA Doctoral Dissertation Award will acknowledge up to two exceptional dissertations per year. Nominations shall be original work that makes an unusually significant contribution to the fields of air quality, all types of waste, or sustainability/management pertaining to air quality or waste.

- Faculty advisors are encouraged to nominate one dissertation that was completed by their advisee.

Required Documents:

- A brief cover letter shall be prepared by the advisor that describes the role of the advisor with respect to the advisee's preparation of the dissertation
- The intellectual contributions that were made by the advisee when preparing the dissertation
- The date when the doctoral degree requirements were completed, and up-to-date contact information (i.e., e-mail address, mailing address, and telephone number) for the advisor
- The advisee who prepared the dissertation must be filled out and submitted on the Nomination Form

A&WMA dissertation award nominations are limited to one per year for each faculty member.

Nominations

Nominations may only be made by the faculty advisors who are members of A&WMA. Self-nominations by students will not be accepted.

- The cover letter that is prepared by the advisor, the nominee's résumé, the entire thesis that was written by the advisee and the Nomination Form must be submitted by the advisor electronically as a PDF file to rlebovitz@awma.org by Thursday, January 18, 2024 at 1:00pm Eastern Time for a doctoral degree awarded during the previous calendar year (i.e. January 1, 2023- December 31, 2023)
