

A&WMA Master Thesis Award 2025

Established by resolution of the Education Council on August 28, 2008, the Master Thesis Award will acknowledge up to two exceptional theses per year. Nominations shall be original work that makes an unusually significant contribution to the fields of air quality, all types of waste, or sustainability/management pertaining to air quality or waste.

- Faculty advisors are encouraged to nominate one master's thesis that was completed by their advisee.
- A brief cover letter shall be prepared by the advisor that describes the role of the advisor with respect to the advisee's preparation of the thesis:
 - The intellectual contributions that were made by the advisee when preparing the thesis
 - The date when the degree requirements were completed
 - Up-to-date contact information (i.e., e-mail address, mailing address, and telephone number) for the advisor and advisee who prepared the thesis must be filled out and submitted on the Nomination Form.
- A&WMA master thesis award nominations are limited to one per year for each faculty member.

Nominations

Nominations may only be made by the faculty advisors who are members of A&WMA. Self-nominations by students will not be accepted.

The cover letter that is prepared by the advisor, the nominee's résumé, the entire thesis that was written by the advisee, and the Nomination Form (see below) must be submitted by the advisor electronically as a PDF file to rlebovitz@awma.org by:

Wednesday, January 15, 2025, at 1:00pm Eastern Time for a degree awarded during the previous calendar year (i.e., January 1, 2024 - December 31, 2024)

Benefits

The award will be presented at the Student Awards Ceremony during the Association's Annual Conference & Exhibition in Raleigh, North Carolina, June 9-12, 2025. The recipient shall also be acknowledged in an article in the Association's EM magazine.
