Sponsorship and Virtual Exhibit Space Opportunities

Sponsorship and exhibiting virtually is a great opportunity to build brand awareness and corporate image, showcase products and services, develop connections and relationships with industry experts, and be recognized as a leader in the field. Sponsors and virtual exhibitors receive recognition on the conference website and virtual conference platform reaching many potential buyers. If these packages don't meet your needs, contact us and we can develop a custom package for your company.

About the Conference

This conference is one of the best kept secrets in the industry for information exchange, discussion, and solutions. This year's virtual program will cover policy updates, regulatory changes, and research on the latest environmental topics from U.S. EPA speakers from the Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards (OAQPS) and Office of Research and Development (ORD) as well as NGOs, state agencies, and more.

Dr. Chris Frey, Deputy Assistant Administrator for Science Policy in the Office of Research and Development, will be the keynote speaker on Thursday, December 9.
