

Make a difference for your career, your company, and the environment

A&WMA has over 5,000 members who are practicing professionals involved in every aspect of the environmental industry all working together towards one common goal.

We welcome you to find your place within the membership of A&WMA.

Ready to take the leap? Complete the online application at www.awma.org/join in minutes and start taking advantage of all that we have to offer.

Get STARTED Get INVOLVED Get AHEAD

Join the Air & Waste Management Association

AIR & WASTE MANAGEMENT
ASSOCIATION

What's in it for me?

A LOT! Consider the benefits of membership as a career insurance policy and savings that can easily cover the cost of your annual dues.

- Reduced registration rates of $100 - $200 at the Annual Conference and all Specialty Conferences.
- Both of our award-winning publications, EM, the Journal, and EM Plus print quarterly, with access to both current and past issues.
- Free monthly content download on the latest environmental topics
- Professional development and continuing education opportunities, including courses and webinars at a reduced rate.
- Free membership in your local chapter or section with events, networking, and more.
- Career Center benefits with access to job postings, resume uploads, career tips, and on site at conferences.
- Industry news delivered directly to your desktop
- Leadership opportunities that will get you noticed

See the complete list of benefits outlined in our Member Benefits Guide online at awma.org/join.

And discover a few new reasons of your own.

An association of diverse individuals welcoming all perspectives in a neutral forum.

A&WMA offers a variety of membership options, including:

- Individual membership available for any person who share the goals of the organization. $195.00
- Young Professional membership offered to individuals under 35 years of age for the first five years. $98.00
- Student membership is available for those enrolled in a full time undergraduate or graduate program pursuing a course of study related to environmental industry. Students receive a free year of professional membership upon their graduation. $35.00

Organizational membership

If your company has six or more individuals who are members or interested in becoming members, you can start an organizational membership and save money.

We have rates for organizations and government agencies for small groups with 3 to 10 members and larger groups with greater than 10 individual members. Organizational members get publicity and special group discounts.

Find out more at www.awma.org/join or contact Customer Service at 412-904-6018; info@awma.org.

Who influenced you to join A&WMA?

Give them credit by including their name in the "Recommended by" line on the application.

